TENANT LANDLORD ASSISTANCE PROJECT

Serving Riverside and San Bernardino Counties

"Pursuing justice and equality for low income people through counsel, advice, advocacy and community education, treating all with dignity and respect"

Inland Counties Legal Services

ICLS provides free legal assistance to low-income persons. Primary law practice areas are family law, landlord/tenant, elder law, consumer debt and public benefits. To find out if you qualify for free legal assistance, call the ICLS office closest to you..

Tenant Landlord Assistance Project

ICLS provides legal information on landlord/tenant law to both sides (landlord or tenant, plaintiff or defendant) in eviction cases pending in Riverside Civil Court. Handouts are available to both landlords and tenants representing themselves, regardless of their income or assets.

Attorney representation of eligible low-income clients in unlawful detainer (eviction) cases may be available to landlords or tenants, on a first-come, first-served basis every day. To find out if you may be eligible for legal services, be at the Riverside Superior Court, Moreno Valley Department MVUD1 no later than 12:45 p.m. to be screened for eligibility and other requirements.

Please remember the following when you are going to your UD trial:

- Always bring your UD answer and UD complaint to your UD trial.
- Bring your evidence to your UD trial, like rent receipts, photos, etc.
- Take your witnesses that know the facts to your UD trial.

Tenant Landlord Housing Hotline

The Housing Law Service Center (HLSC) is a branch office of Inland Counties Legal Services, which operates the Tenant/Landlord Assistance Project (TLAP). The Housing Hotline provides free legal service over the telephone for residents of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties that are eligible. The housing hotline is staffed by paralegals under the direct supervision of ICLS attorneys. In order to provide no-cost legal services over the telephone, our paralegals are first required to screen for eligibility by taking a phone application.
