Only U. S. citizens, legal permanent residents, or persons with other legal status are eligible for free federally funded legal services.

Inland Counties Legal Services, Inc. provides free civil legal assistance to seniors who are 60 years or older who reside in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

Access to Legal Assistance:

- By Phone Call our Senior Help Lines -- local, toll free, TTY
- At a Senior Center Outreach Clinic. Our elder law advocates travel to senior and community centers throughout both counties to give legal counsel and assistance. Seniors are seen by appointment only at the Senior or Community Centers monthly, or quarterly. Call the Center nearest to your home for an appointment.

Priorities:

- Seniors who are low-income, 75 years of age or older, non or limited-English speaking, homebound, live alone or who are disabled, chronically ill, or functionally impaired receive priority in service.

- Elder Abuse: We give priority to elder abuse cases, including matters involving financial, emotional and mental abuse as well as physical abuse, and help seniors with government and public benefits.
- Legal Information: Our advocates will meet with senior groups and make presentations on legal topics. Contact the branch office nearest you and ask for the managing attorney.

Legal Assistance:

- Health Care: We assist with MediCal and MediCare and prepare powers of attorney (advanced health care directive)
- Estate Planning: We advise on small estates and prepare simple wills in appropriate cases
- Housing (mobile home park tenancies, evictions, removing property liens)
- Consumer fraud
- Guardianships and conservatorships
 - To protect seniors from financial or physical abuse or:
 - To obtain emergency medical benefits, spousal and child support

Funding is provided by:

- San Bernardino County Department of Aging and Adult Services
- Riverside County Office on Aging RCAGING.org
- State Bar of California Legal Services Trust Fund Program
- Legal Services Corporation

- Network of Care: Network of Care is a comprehensive, Internet-based community resource for the elderly and people with disabilities, including their caregivers and service providers.
