Volunteer Opportunities

Inland Counties Legal Services's Pro Bono Program seeks to connect with legal professionals and other experts in their field to assist in a legal capacity. We are seeking volunteers who wish to help us provide comprehensive, free legal services to a diverse client population. We recruit volunteers with diverse backgrounds and experience levels to participate in our many legal projects, clinics, and cases. We accept volunteer attorneys, law students, law school graduates, paralegals, social workers, and other professionals who play a vital role in expanding the free legal services to vulnerable members of the community. We are committed to both providing quality services to clients while ensuring that volunteers gain meaningful experience.

If you would like to find out more about volunteer opportunities at ICLS, send an email to volunteer@icls.org. We look forward to connecting with you!
